

PROFILE: MR. AHMED SHAHRYAR RAHMAN

Mr. Ahmed Shahryar Rahman is one of the brightest young businessmen of the country representing the few, who are in the steering role of the largest business organizations in Bangladesh. He comes of a pioneering business family that has played a significant part in the trade, business, industrial and economic activities and development since long. In fact, the family of Mr. Shahryar was taking part in the national development of the country through the participation in various economic activities as well as in the politics from the period of un-divided Pakistan while his grand father late Mr. Fazlur Rahman, a former minister of the Government of Pakistan was running two leading Jute mills in the country. Further, after the independence of Bangladesh, with the growth and development of their business and industrialization the names of Mr. A S F Rahman and Mr. Salman F Rahman, the father and the uncle of Mr. Shahryar have crossed the border and equally being known at both nationally and internationally as the top ranking businessmen of the country.

Mr. Ahmed Shahryar Rahman had both his graduation with honors and the post graduation degree in Chemical Engineering from the Imperial College of Science, Technology & Medicine in London, UK before which he attended the Epsom College, Surrey, UK for the 'A' levels.

Mr. Rahman is currently the Director of Beximco Textiles Division, which is managing the vertically integrated production facilities from yarn to garments belongs to Beximco Group, the largest private sector business conglomerate of Bangladesh.

Beximco Group that comprises of 17 companies out of which 04 are listed in the Dhaka Stock Exchange and performing the leading role in the country's capital market, today is not only the largest private taxpayer and biggest private consumer of natural gas in Bangladesh, it is also a significant employer of over 50,000 people on its direct payrolls. The group has wide interests in manufacturing Textiles, Pharmaceuticals, IT, Jute, Real Estate, Construction and Ceramics among others. The Group's current annual turnover is over US $ 500 million and it has some of the most prestigious and renowned international brands as its customers. Beximco Textiles Division based at Sarabo, Kashimpur, Gazipur in the only private Industrial Park in Bangladesh having a huge state of the art facilities for operating an integrated production management from single location from where the entire functions of manufacturing of yarn, designing of fabric, development of products and styles and of-course manufacturing of garments are done.

Mr. Ahmed Shahryar Rahman has wide experience in financial analysis working with organization like Merrill Lynch International Inc. and the Citigroup Asset Management Ltd. in the UK.

He is an active organizer of various social welfare activities and has organized and participated events for Imperial Cancer Research Fund. Mr. Rahman has interest in playing sports such as swimming, squash, tennis, cricket etc. and a keen and international experienced traveler. He is curious about the ICT, computer graphics, reading and music.