

Jean-Marc Derossis

ICA President

Jean-Marc was born in 1974 in Grenoble, in the French Alps. After attending the International High School in the German Section and obtaining his Baccalaureat in Mathematics and Physics, he did a 2-year foundation course at Lycee du Parc in Lyon before joining EDHEC Business School where he graduated in 1997 having majored in futures and options markets.

After 17 years working as trader and then Managing Director of a Liverpool cotton trading firm, Jean-Marc joined BTG Pactual Commodities as Head of Physical Cotton Trading in 2014.

He served as an ICA Director from 2004 to 2010 and re-joined the ICA Board in 2012.

Jean-Marc lives in London with his wife Maura and their son Louis-Antoine.

