

Uday B. Thakkar is the Managing Director of U. B. Cotton Pvt. Ltd, a Company with its headquarters in Mumbai and branches spread over almost in all cotton growing States in India.

This is a family run Company and he is the 3rd generation in the cotton business. Thakkar family started the cotton business in the year 1944.

After graduation, he joined the family business under the tutelage of his late father and inherited the business accumen to propel the company to a wider reach.

The Company is actively involved in sourcing imported cotton from various overseas suppliers in order to cater to the local Indian Mills and also in selling Indian cotton to domestic Mills. U. B. Cotton also exports cotton to various markets.

Uday Thakkar is also on the Board of Directors of Cotton Association of India since more than 12 years and is also an active participant in various Committees of the Association. He is also a Trustee of Cottaap, a research arm of Cotton Association of India.