

Biographies – Third Open Session

Hassan Ahmed HASSAN is currently a professor at a university and researcher at Agricultural Research Corporation Land and Water Research Center. He has a rich experience as a research scientist from 1984 up until today at various organizations such as Land and Water Research Center (2008-11), Shendi Res.Station (2002-2006) and others. He received his Masters and PhD in soil science at University of California.

Arif H. Makhdum is currently working as Director Sustainable Agriculture & Food Program, WWF-Pakistan. Mr. Makhdum has 25 years experience of working on different projects involving practical implementation of biological control and Integrated Pest Management of injurious pest species with major focus on conservation of major insect fauna at macro and micro levels. He has 42 scientific publications in journal of international repute.

Daniyar Andakulov is currently project manager at Helvatas Swiss Intercooperation in Kyrgyzstan. He also held positions in the same establishment as project coordinator and marketing officer. Before Helvatas Swiss Intercooperation, Mr.Andakulov was the Human Resource Manager at “Kayaoglu-Yertas” Turkish Construction Company.

Chairperson: Hammad Naqi Khan is the Director General/CEO of WWF-Pakistan since September 01, 2014. He worked for WWF-International's Market Transformation Initiative (MTI) as the Global Cotton Leader from August 2011 to July 2014. Mr Hammad possesses more than 27 years of professional experience that include donor liaison, resource mobilization, program development & implementation, media engagement, policy review, strategic planning, coordination, assessment, management & supervision of projects. His experience is not limited to Pakistan, as he has also worked at the regional and international fora on various issues.